PRESENTED BY THE SENIOR CLASS OF

SCHUYLKILL HAVEN
HIGH SCHOOL

ALMA MATER

For you, Haven High,
We'll work and we'll try,
To bring your name
Glory and more fame.
May all that you know,
Be pride and joy alone,
Our Alma Mater behold
The "Blue and Gold."

Schuylkill Haven High,
We will fight for you,
Staunch we'll remain,
To you, the "Gold and Blue,"
As true as the "Blue,"
As worthy as "Gold,"
We'll do our best for you
Our Haven High.

Our dear Haven High,
For thee we'll do or die,
Our thoughts will cling with thee
Unto eternity.
The friends gained through your love
They'll be as stars above,
This Alma Mater true
We dedicate to you.

SCHUYLKILL HAVEN HIGH SCHOOL

FOREWORD

THE World is to the FLEET—and the reward to those who, with the ability to think, assist in the accomplishment of a fuller and better life.

For many thousands of years, up to the advent of steam, the rate of progress was so slow as to be barely perceptible as between one century and the next.

During a little more than the last half-century, man's environment has been changed more; the material development of the United States, in particular, and much of the world, has been greater than was experienced by our ancestors in all preceding historic time.

This wonderful material development is the result of the multiplication of human effort by the utilization of energy resources, and the easy transportation of men and goods from place to place.

With these facts in mind, we, the Class of 1937, have endeavored, in this volume of the "Blue and Gold," to enclose and leave with the ages a tangible memory of the progress in our education contrasted with the progress made in transportation.

Top: Lowering standards and demolishing storehouse. Middle: Ground-breaking. Bottom: Loosening cement standard holders and digging trenches for foundation.

BUILDING PROJECT

The addition to the High School building is to provide for improvements and additions to the classrooms and the gymnasium.

These six new classrooms and the gymnasium will be wired for radio, and perhaps the wiring will be extended to the present building for the installation of a radio and public address system.

TO THE CITIZENS

TO THE CITIZENS of Schuylkill Haven, the Class of 1937 wishes to make it known that we fully appreciate their interest in us. The numerous ways in which the townspeople have been of benefit to us will always be remembered. Our various activities have become outstanding largely through their support. Therefore, we, as a class, desire to take this means of expressing our high esteem of these, our friends.

We have had their loyal backing in such activities as athletic games, class plays, and Parent-Teachers' Association festivals, and their generosity has been evidenced in helping to make each edition of the "Blue and Gold" a success. The faithful attendance at the sessions of the Parent-Teachers' Association shows their coöperation with the teachers and their interest in the work of the students. Our athletic teams have been particularly encouraged by the local enthusiastic spectators who are always boosters, whether in glorious victory or humiliating defeat.

They have given whole-hearted response in the voting for an addition to the high school building. Although we, as Seniors, may never be able to participate in any of the school work or activities carried on under the advantages of this annex, nevertheless we are glad that it has been our lot to witness its erection. We are proud of our citizens in that they have seen fit to award this to the furthering of the cause of education in our Alma Mater. As a class we shall look forward with a great deal of interest to the progress made by future students under the advantages of this addition.

We, therefore, highly value the hearty way in which, through these varied means, the citizens of our community have helped to share our pride in our school and aided in sustaining the high standards of the curriculum in the Junior and Senior High School. We sincerely hope that this page will at least partially convey our appreciation, and, in a small way, will compensate for the debt of gratitude we owe to them.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

The Board of Education is responsible for many school benefits derived from their considerate and helpful acts. They have aided in making our school-life more attractive by unselfishly giving much time to the betterment of the school environment. For all these favors, the Class of 1937 is deeply grateful.

CLASS MOTTO:

"To succeed—one must have kept abreast of Progress"

We, the Class of 1937, started with 121 eager students in September of 1933 to travel the road that would lead us to our goal—graduation—but now there are only 94 of us left as we finally come to our journey's end.

Our Freshman advisers were Mr. Harner, Miss Pflueger, Miss Fredericks, and Mr. Stauffer.

Class Officers:

President	RUSSELL COOVER
Vice-President	JAMES HINNERSHITZ
Secretary	ANNA SAYLOR
Treasurer	BETTY FITZPATRICK

While we were Sophomores our advisers were Miss Heim, Mr. Young, Mr. Kerschner, and Mr. Imboden.

Class Officers:

President	JAMES HINNERSHITZ
Vice-President	CHESTER MENGLE
Secretary	HELEN VALENTINE
Treasurer	ANNA SAYLOR

On May Day, Anna Saylor represented us as May Queen and Betty Fitzpatrick was Crown Bearer.

When we returned in September of 1935 as Juniors, our advisers were Miss Bausum, Miss Seltzer, and Mr. Berger.

Our Hallowe'en skating party was held at Willow Lake. Everyone had a fine time.

Olena Hendrickson represented our class this year in debating.

The Junior play "Take My Advice," presented on February 24 and 25, was greatly enjoyed by everyone. The cast took their parts well.

The class also sponsored a trip to West Point. All who took this excursion enjoyed it very much.

Class Officers:

President	JAMES HINNERSHITZ
Vice-President	AUSTIN GILHAM
Secretary	ANNA SAYLOR
Treasurer	BETTY FITZPATRICK

On September 2, 1936, we started on our last mile toward our destination, with Miss Heim and Mr. Shank as our advisers.

On October 26, the class held a Hallowe'en Party in the gymnasium. Games were played and music was furnished for dancing by a number of our Senior boys.

The greatest financial success of the year was the Senior play, "The Tin Hero." Everyone will remember the wit and humor introduced by the cast. The members taking part were: Chester Mengle, Geraldine Shank, Anna Saylor, Betty Fitzpatrick, Austin Gilham, Rita McGlinchey, Thomas Maberry, Mary Harvey, Reta Clauser, Mary Heckman, Dorothy Hurst, and Herbert Frantz.

We appreciate the splendid effort Miss Heim and Mr. Shank put forth to make the play a success. We also congratulate the cast who worked very diligently and faithfully.

Congratulations, Juniors! That was a fine Minstrel Show you put on! Every Senior appreciated his free ticket.

At last the day has come which everyone has been looking forward to with such eager anticipation—the Washington Trip! Mr. Walter Johnston acted as our tour conductor and under his guidance we had an excellent time.

By this time the annual, our "Blue and Gold," was completed and ready for distribution. The staff showed fine coöperation in "putting it across." We wish to thank the patrons for their interest in our annual and for helping us in our sale of books.

The last nights of our entire public school career came to an end with Class Night and a Commencement Pageant which was given in the auditorium on Tuesday and Wednesday nights, June 15 and 16.

We, the Class of 1937, have just finished perhaps one of the greatest careers in our lives. From here we go out into the world, not as a class but as individuals, to solve new problems and to take advantage of the opportunities which await us. Success and Happiness to every graduate of '37.

CLASS SONG

Loud and strong we sing our song
To our dear old Haven Hi,
To the loyal "Blue and the Gold,"
To the teams so bold.
All the joy that you have brought
Within our loving hearts is deeply wrought;
And though we leave you our hearts always will be true
To you, the Gold and Blue.

Dear old Schuylkill Haven Hi,
Time shall never dim nor mar,
As we bear your lighted torch afar
While the years go by.
You have been our guiding star,
And as we now approach our parting hour,
We bring to you the laurel of devotion true
And honors that are due.

Words and Music by HELEN HEISLER

CLASS POEM

AS A TREE GROWETH

We as leaves on the tree—Education—
Are now dropping to the road—Vocation.
We've clung to that tree for twelve short years,
And now we part but without any fears.

We all have work that we must do,
And may Character help to guide us through
To the road that will lead us to success,
A full life, and happiness.

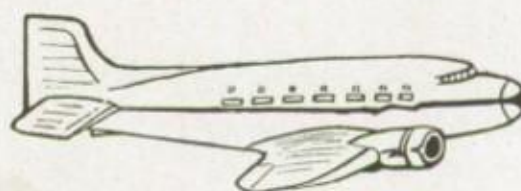

We've clung to that tree and we've worked together,
But now alone we must brave the weather.
We must fight. Yes! and we, too, must win,
Against all fears—without—within.

The dear "Blue and Gold," we hate to leave,
And if her blessings we shall receive,
Then hold high her banner and let us try
To bring her honor—always—Haven High!

We'll not say good-bye, we'll just say farewell,
What our future has destined, no one can tell.
That our thoughts will be with you, we need not say
Always, ever—as the night—the day.

You who through the years which now have passed,
You who have taught us to grow and to hold fast,
Will guide us on, and us bless,
We, too, shall find in life—Success.

—ELEANOR NEY

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

WE, THE CLASS OF 1937, of Schuylkill Haven High School, being of sound mind and body, and being endowed with exceptional qualities and new ideas, realizing that the future of our school will suffer great harm if we fail to bestow our legacies, and hoping that our interest will be evident, we do hereby bestow the following:

ARTICLE I: To the School—

1. The privilege of graduating another class of Seniors who have achieved as many things as the Class of 1937.

3. Students having their work in on time.

ARTICLE II: To our Principal, Mr. Hartranft—

1. An assembly that will get quiet more quickly.

ARTICLE III: To our Advisers—

Sincere appreciation for their untiring efforts in our behalf and trust that they will be rewarded in the same spirit in which they have given of their efforts to help us—we hereby wish to follow the same course taken by our predecessors, by the following legacies, the same to be granted from collective estates in the same order in which they appear.

ARTICLE IV: To the Faculty—

1. Sound-proof walls.
2. Students taking more interest in their studies.
3. A Latin pony that can make more speed with less effort.
4. A class basketball team that will at least offer some opposition to the "Flashy Faculty Five."

CLASS PROPHECY

124 Chatridge Street
Philadelphia, Pa.
June 14, 1947.

DEAR OLENA:

I was delighted to receive your letter and to find that your explorations in the African jungles are proving so interesting and profitable to you. However, I do not envy you your position. Teaching first graders to write their names is excitement enough for me.

Yesterday afternoon I met three of our former classmates, Eleanor Ney, Marianne Schweigert, and Blanche Wagner. I discovered that Eleanor is secretary to Mr. Morgenthau III, Marianne is her assistant, and Blanche is a cashier in one of New York City's lunchrooms.

The girls accepted my invitation to dinner. While I was considering means of entertainment, I suddenly remembered that it was the tenth anniversary of our graduation from Haven High. This was a suggestion to me to get out the stro-pro-scope which had been willed to me by an inventor.

By placing the name of a person on a sheet of paper which is inserted in the machine, the life of the owner of the name is revealed. Everyone was much interested in looking into the lives of their former classmates and friends for the remainder of the evening.

It was found that success is playing a prominent part in the lives of our classmates. Dorothy Hurst is studying music in Germany and Mildred Bair is a commercial model for Lux facial soap. Betty Fitzpatrick has made a choice—she married Austin Gilham after his return from a voyage as First Commander of the Navy.

Chester Mengle and May Phillips are playing "Betty and Bob" on the radio.

Orwigsburg has become quite a prosperous town which now boasts of a mayor to whom Anna Saylor is married.

On Bing Crosby's last program, Helen Wingle and Margaret Bubeck were guest singers. Helen is fast realizing her ambition.

The greatest tobacco magnate in the United States is none other than Willard Miller, who has hired several of his pals, among whom are Carl Feger, George Orwig, and Joseph McCord. Incidentally—it is fortunate for Joe that he has a pal to look after him for I understand that he has never learned to get to his destination on time.

Working for a doctor in his high-school days had its effect on Thomas Maberry. He was seen in his second-year internship at a Philadelphia hospital. Charles Bubeck has also selected surgery as his vocation—tree surgery.

Floyd Brown is a typical poet. Some day his name will probably be remembered as Longfellow's now is.

Christine Reber is a positive old maid, and Anthony Cupko is a quiet bachelor. Apparently, Andy never "raked up" enough nerve to propose to Christine.

Jack Benny doesn't even stand a chance since Thomas Gottshall came into the limelight.

Once more Schuylkill Haven is represented at West Point. This time Alfred Stank is doing the town honors.

Orville Berger and Albert Gustitus are business partners in a glue factory, their salesman being DeVon Fahl.

The kind heart of Christine Cinnone has led her to the relief of others. She is a district nurse in Chicago.

The greatest of all changes which have taken place in our former friends is that of Betty Feger. We discovered her as a demure society leader in Philadelphia. Her giggles have blown away with the winds of time.

June Killian and Mary Heckman are braving the wilds of Africa as missionaries. Mary's friend, Agatha Hellenthal, is a biologist. She always did take a delight in dissecting.

The American Store in Schuylkill Haven is now under the management of Harold Fryer, with Lewis Bashore, Robert Bowen, Edward Clark, and Robert Bair in his employ; Verna Grieff is cashier.

In a glass factory, established by Luther Hartman, we saw Mary Brown, Grace Edling, and Doris Hawk.

Mary Harvey is a news reporter for Schuylkill Haven's town paper, and Gertrude Schwartz writes for the women's page on how to make the home more attractive with wooden boxes and bits of cretonne. She also gives tested recipes for the newly-weds. Walter Staller is her human guinea pig.

Ye Haven T Room is under the proprietorship of Reta Clauser. Here Vernon Heim and his orchestra, consisting of several of his classmates, Edgar Palsgrove, Helen Heisler, Darwin Naus, and Robert Naffin, furnish the music.

An appearance of Grace Jones on Major Bowes' Amateur Hour brought much entertainment to his fans. Grace won a prize for using her laugh to imitate chickens cackling, a horn tooting, a steam engine whistling, and a cock crowing.

Rita McGlinchey has become a household chemist. Recently she published a book called "Cook Book Chemistry."

Two excellent nurses have been trained at the Allentown Hospital—Christine Kremer and Ruth Ney.

Olivan Kemble and Marguerite Kull have arranged an information bureau to aid high-school graduates.

Earl Lord has a modern dress shop in Pottsville where Betty Reed is head clerk and June Rose Maberry is chief model.

James Hinnershitz is a signboard painter. His chum, Jack Reber, goes along with him to act as chauffeur, be a good companion, and carry "Hink's" paint.

Mercedes McCord and Nedra Sidler are secretaries to James Madenfort and William McGlinchey, respectively.

A second Sherlock Holmes is Francis McGlone. He is organizing a Scotland Yard in United States to give the G-Men competition. Merlin Roeder, Leonard Wychunas, Roy Roeder, and William Bair are four of the new organization's members.

The fur-trading of Wesley Neiheiser is very prosperous. Irvin Kremer has a very economical cat and rat farm. He raises rats to feed the cats, and kills the cats to feed the rats.

Howard Repp has become quite a skilful wrestler and may attempt to gain the championship some day.

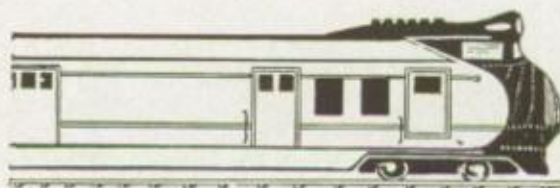

A cafeteria has been installed in our high school where Pearl Reber, Elsie Strause, and Helen Sweitzer are matrons.

Mary Schaeffer, Sarah Shadler, and Ruth Russell stayed in the home town. Anita Warmkessel resides in Chicago.

Haven's Class of '37 is also represented at Hollywood where Dorothy Gehrig is a stand-in for Greta Garbo and Leo Hummel and Lewis Huey set up scenery.

Thus our happy evening closed. I will be impatiently waiting for your next letter to hear more of your interesting accounts of your travels.

Your classmate,
GERALDINE SHANK

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

On September 1, 1936, one hundred and ten students, ready and eager to become the Junior Class, assembled under the leadership of Miss Bausum, Miss Hoy, Mr. Brown, and Mr. Berger.

CLASS OFFICERS

President	ROBERT MENGLE
Vice-President	MARNE BUBECK
Secretary	ALICE BERGER
Treasurer	BETTY AULENBACH

The Class couldn't boast of many social activities but the Hallowe'en Party, which took place on October 28, was considered a huge success.

Representing our class in football were: Robert Byerly—newly elected Captain; M. Bubeck, J. Haas, S. Reed, W. Holzer, R. Mengle, D. Emerich, W. Reed, E. Abbott, C. Meyers, J. Templin, T. Bolton, R. Rollman, C. Barnum.

The annual Junior Class play took place on March 1 and 2 in the form of a Minstrel Show: The leading characters of the "Smoke-town Minstrels" were. Interlocutor, Robert Rollman; Endmen: Jean Seidel, Catherine Knell, Bette Guldin, Donald Emerich, Charles Barnum, William Holzer.

The Junior Class again sponsored a trip to West Point in May. We made an inspection of the buildings and reviewed the dress parade. Many were able to speak to Jim Schwenk, our home-town cadet.

These events were topped by the yearly Junior Prom which took place early in May. It was held at Ketner's Hall which was beautifully decorated in the class colors, royal blue and gray. It was the crowning success of our life as Juniors.

"THE TIN HERO"

ON November 24 and 25, 1936, in the High School Auditorium, the Seniors presented as their annual play "The Tin Hero," under the direction of Miss Heim and Mr. Shank.

The son of an American woman, while visiting in Cannes, France, rescued a young French girl from drowning, by rowing to her in a leaky rowboat. His mother, on hearing of the deed, exaggerated and circulated the report that her son was a champion swimmer. The son, after returning to America, was forced to enter a swimming contest in order to live up to the reputation established for him by his mother. The fact that he won the contest proved a source of joy for everyone.

Intelligent acting under capable direction made the production notable not only for its Senior characterization but also for its spontaneous appeal.

TRI-HI-Y

THE Tri-Hi-Y is a state organization composed of Junior and Senior girls. Its slogan is: "Pure thoughts, pure words, pure actions"; its objective is to seek, to find, to share; its platform is self-improvement, Christian fellowship, united service; its purpose is to create, maintain, and extend, throughout the school and community, the high standards of Christian character.

The Club's activities have been varied. The refreshment stand at the home football games was conducted by the Club. In December the organization attended the Trinity Evangelical Church in a body. The president, Anna Saylor, and the treasurer, Jean A. Reber attended the State Convention at Harrisburg. The Club again sponsored the Christmas Party for the poor kiddies, and the Tea Dance for the Alumnæ members of the Club.

Each year the present Tri-Hi-Y hands down the torch to its successors and wishes them much success in carrying out the ideals set forth by this organization.

We wish to extend our thanks to our adviser, Miss Bausum, for her support of this Club.

THE HAVEN FAX has maintained a high standing this year. In order to develop in the minds of the students a keener consciousness of the functions of a school paper, the staff adopted several new policies.

It is a member of the Pennsylvania Scholastic Press Association and the Columbia Scholastic Press Association. Our school paper has received very favorable comment from time to time from these associations and other authoritative persons.

The excellence of this paper was due to a hard-working and industrious staff in conjunction with cub members.

CHRISTMAS CANTATA

THIS year a large audience had the pleasure of witnessing a very entertaining and inspirational program which was presented by the students of the high school.

The A Cappella Choir made its contribution to this festive occasion by rendering a very fine production of carol singing and other hymns in keeping with the season.

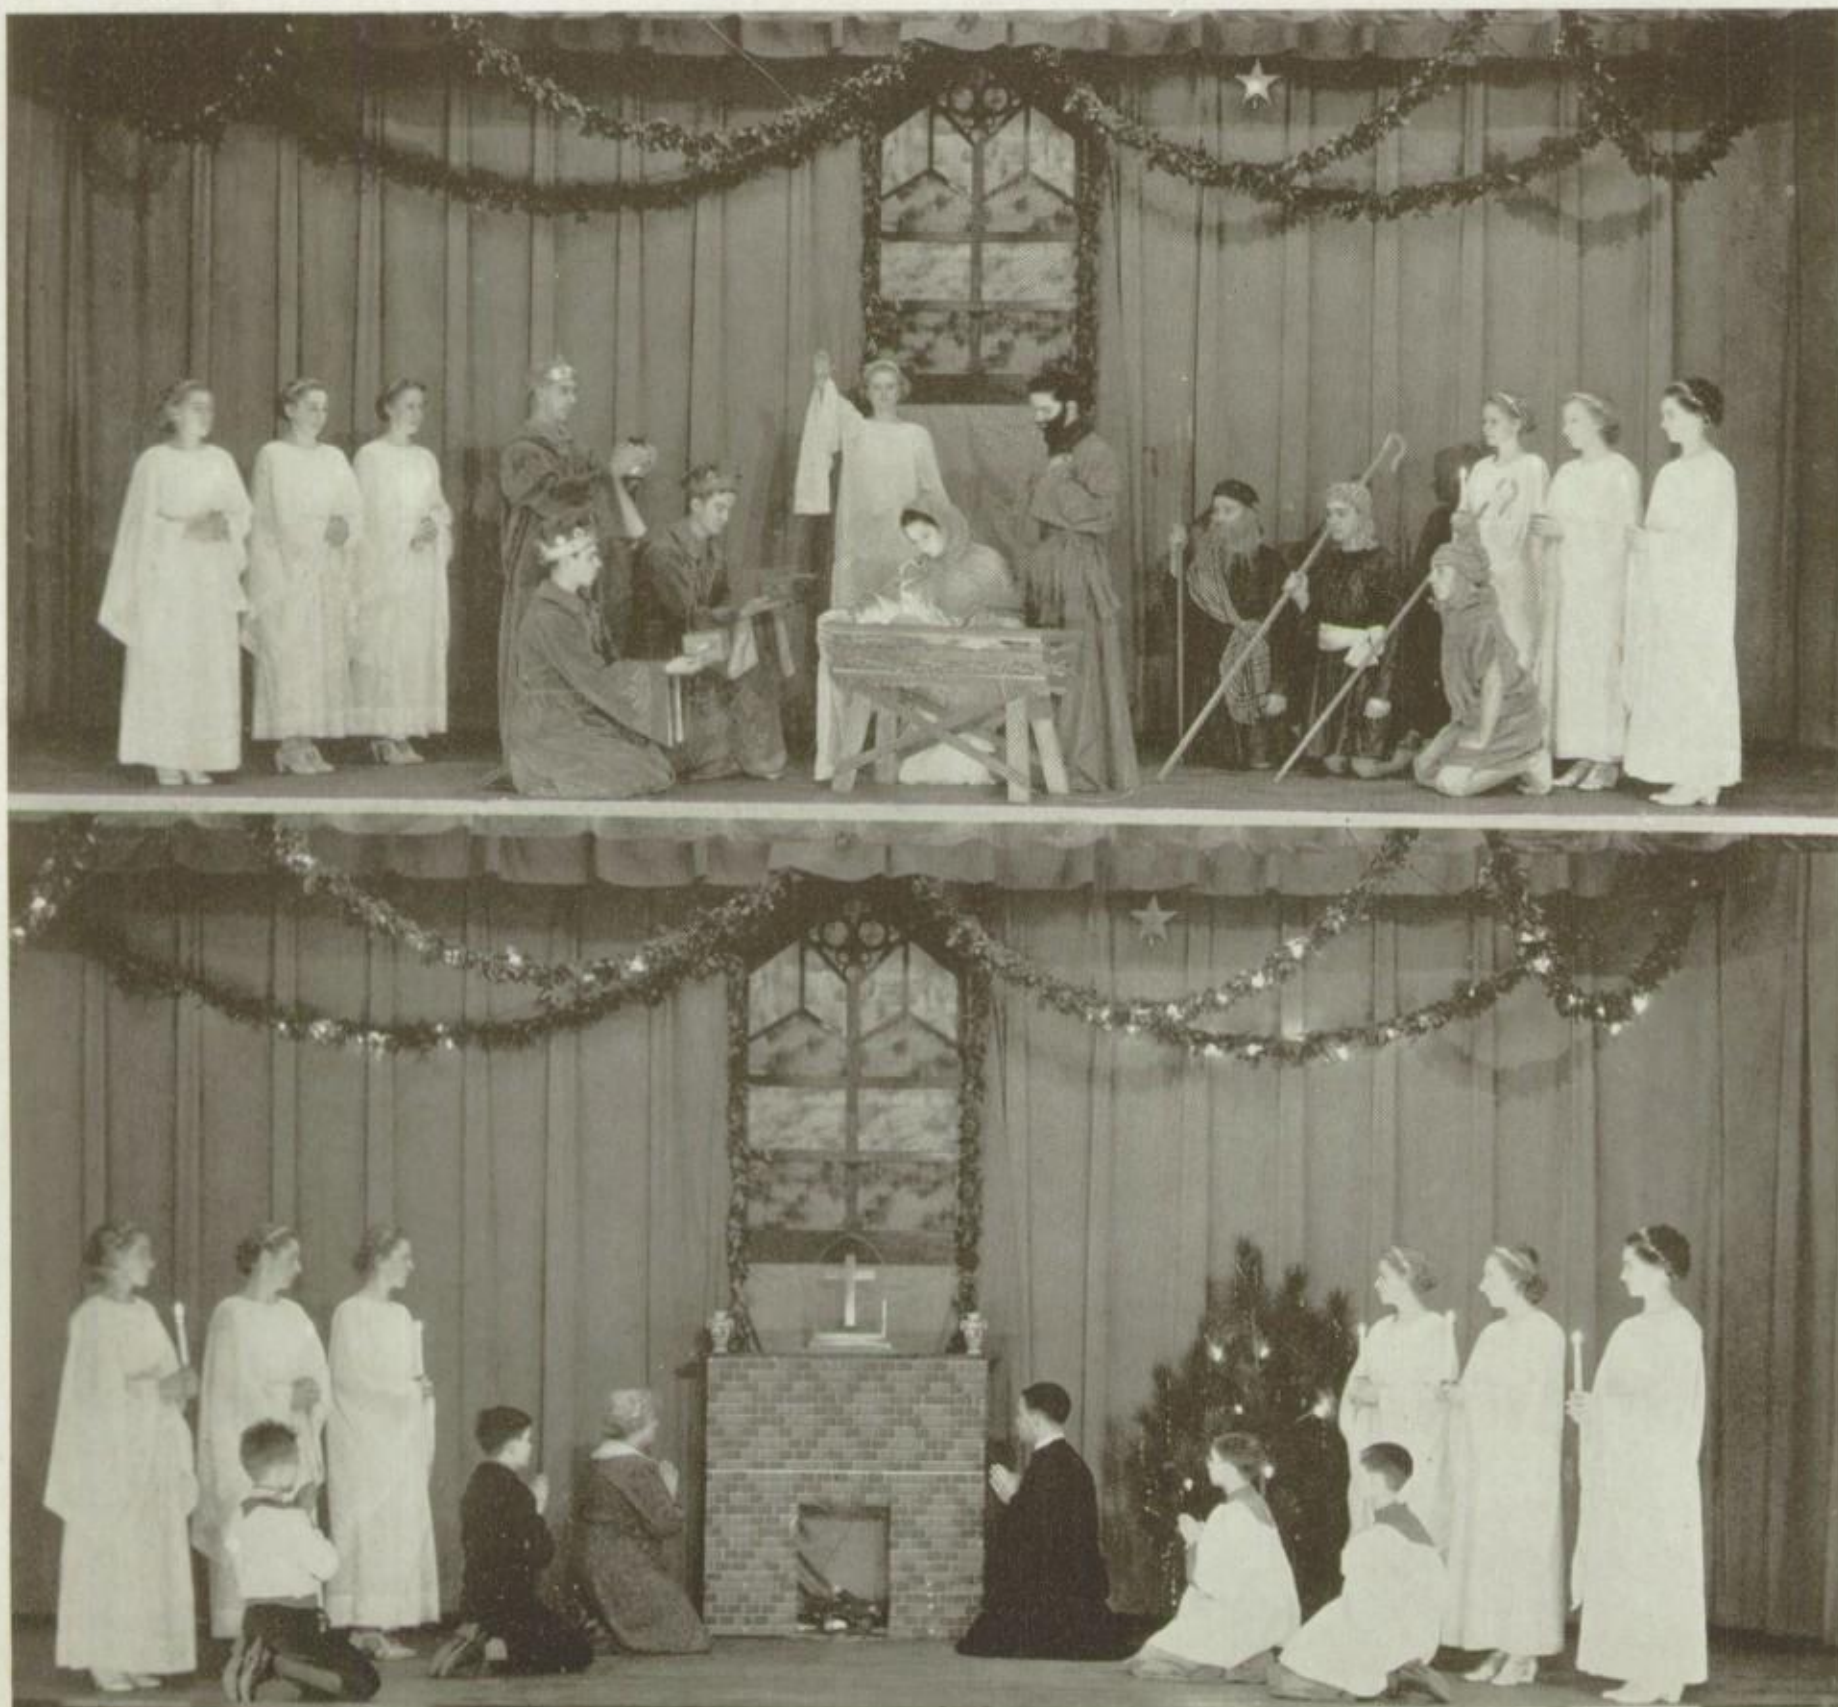

Following this rendezvous, the story of the Nativity, in tableau form, was presented. The audience was held in a reverent calm by the beautiful scenes, and the excellent rendition of the old familiar Christmas hymns by a mixed chorus.

The success of this program was due to Miss Shoener, who supervised it, and to the other members of the faculty who assisted her. The students are also accredited with having done a splendid piece of work in presenting the old, yet ever-new and beloved story.

FOOTBALL

MR. Stauffer issued the call for football candidates a week before school started. When he announced the first practice, one of the largest squads in years reported. Most of the players were underclassmen and stayed out during the entire season. The team worked very hard with Coach Stauffer. "Hal" Repp was the Captain of the team and the outstanding player. He was selected, by vote of his team-mates, as the most valuable player on the team and received a trophy donated by the Refowich Theater. "Hal" played fullback.

"Al" Stank and "Dark" Naus, the brilliant halfbacks, played bang-up games in the backfield throughout the season. Byerly, the quarterback, proved very efficient. "Jim" Hinnershitz and "Charlie" Bubeck played outstanding games on the line as end and center respectively. Meyers, Holzer, Bubeck, Bolton and Emerich also played well on the line.

The Seniors on the squad were: "Hal" Repp, "Al" Stank, "Dark" Naus, "Jim" Hinnershitz, "Charlie" Bubeck, "Bully" McGlone, "Andy" Cupko, "Doc" Fahl, "Spark" Lord, and "Wes" Neiheiser.

Robert Byerly was selected as Captain of next year's team. A fine team is expected next year with such veterans as Meyers, Holzer, M. Bubeck, S. Reed, Byerly, Mengle, Bolton, and Abbott.

The team had a rather successful season. They ended up with 4 wins and 6 defeats for the Varsity. The J. V.'s won 2 games and lost 2.

"Joe" McCord proved a very efficient Manager.

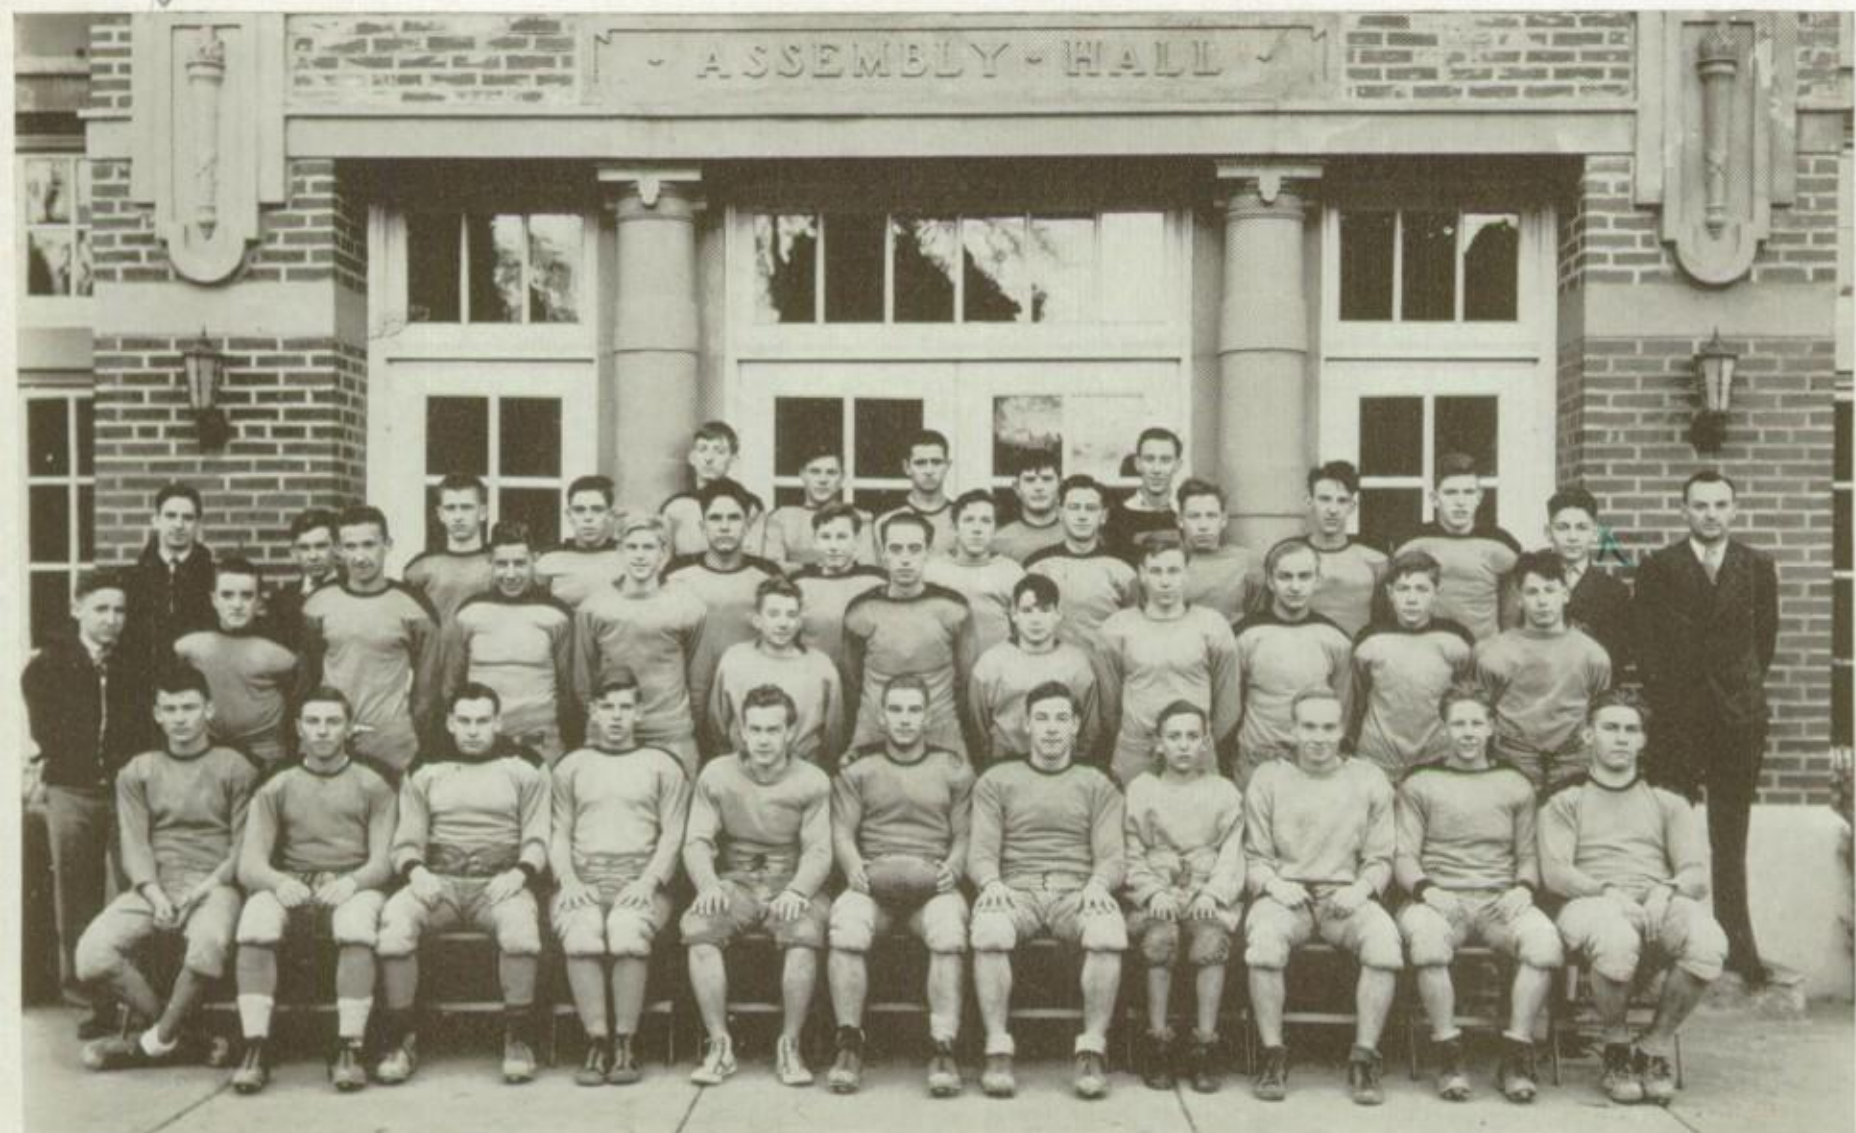

Front row, left to right: R. Briggman, R. Mengle, D. Naus, E. Lord, J. Haas, H. Repp, C. Bubeck, W. Maberry, A. Stank, E. Abbott, W. Holzer.

Interclass basketball was participated in by many boys. The Senior team captured the championship and the Juniors captured the second-place position. The games were exciting and closely waged.

BOYS' INTERCLASS BASKETBALL

INTERCLASS BASKETBALL was participated in by many boys. Both the Senior and Junior classes had two teams this year. The final playoff, which was between the first teams of both of these classes, left the Senior team holding the championship. The Juniors captured the second position. The interclass games always prove very interesting and exciting.

PROGRESS

There are few fields where the necessity for progress—the demand for new ideas, is as pronounced as in the production of School Annuals. ✧ Here in Canton we take pride in not only keeping pace, but in setting the pace for innovations and changes in this highly progressive field. ✧ When you work with Canton you are hand in hand with experienced people, constantly on the alert to sense the wants of Annual publishers, and quick to change from the old order, and offer new and unusual ideas to progressive editors.
